

ST. STEPHEN'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SANTA CLARITA
STATIONS OF THE CROSS
MARCH 19, 2021

The Gathering

Jesus told his disciples,
"If any want to become my followers,
let them deny themselves
and take up their cross and follow me.
For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it." Matthew 16:24

Let us pray.

All:

Almighty and everlasting God, who in your tender love towards the human race sent your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ to take upon him our flesh and to suffer death on a cross: grant that we may follow the example of his patience and humility, and also be made partakers of his resurrection; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Reader: Holy God, holy and strong, holy and immortal.
have mercy on us.

People: Holy God, holy and strong, holy and immortal.
have mercy on us.

The First Station: Jesus is Condemned to Die

Jesus stands in the most human of places. He has already experienced profound solidarity with so many on this earth, by being beaten and tortured. Now he is wrongfully condemned to punishment by death. His commitment to entering our lives completely begins its final steps. He has said "yes" to God and placed his life in God's hands. We follow him in this final surrender, and contemplate with reverence each place along the way, as he is broken and given for us.

Reader: We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you.

All: Because by your holy cross
you have redeemed the world.

As I view the scene,
I become moved by both outrage and gratitude.
I look at Jesus.
His face.
The crown of thorns.
The blood.

His clothes stuck to the wounds on his back.
Pilate washes his hands of the whole affair.
Jesus' hands are tied behind his back.

This is for me.
That I might be free.
That I might have eternal life.
As the journey begins I ask to be with Jesus.
To follow his journey. I express my love and thanks.

All:

At the cross her station keeping,
stood the mournful mother weeping,
close to Jesus at the last,

The Second Station: Jesus Carries His Cross

Jesus is made to carry the cross on which he will die. It represents the weight of all our crosses. What he must have felt as he first took it upon his shoulders! With each step he enters more deeply into our human experience. He walks in the path of human misery and suffering, and experiences its crushing weight.

I contemplate the wood of that cross.
I imagine how heavy it is.
I reflect upon all it means that Jesus is carrying it.
I look into his eyes.
It's all there.

So I place myself with him in this journey.
In its anguish.
In his freedom and surrender.
In the love that must fill his heart.

All:

Through her soul, of joy bereaved, bowed with anguish, deeply grieved,
now at length the sword hath passed.

The Third Station: Jesus Falls the First Time

The weight is unbearable. Jesus falls under it. How could he enter our lives completely without surrendering to the crushing weight of the life of so many on this earth! He lays on the ground and knows the experience of weakness beneath unfair burdens. He feels the powerlessness of wondering if he will ever be able to continue. He is pulled up and made to continue.

As I behold him there on the ground,
being roughly pulled up,
I know forever how profoundly
he understands my fatigue and my defeats.

This is for me.
In grief and gratitude I want to let him remain there.
As I watch him stand again and gain an inner strength,
I accept his love
and express my thanks.

All:

O, that blessed one, grief-laden,
blessed Mother, blessed Maiden, Mother of the all-Holy One;

The Fourth Station: Jesus Meets His Mother

Jesus' path takes him to a powerful source of his strength to continue. All his life, his mother had taught him the meaning of the words, "Behold, the handmaid of the Lord." Now they look into each other's eyes. How pierced-through her heart must be! How pained he must be to see her tears! Now, her grace-filled smile blesses his mission and stirs his heart to its depth. Love and trust in God bind them together.

As I watch them in this place along the way,
I contemplate the mystery of love's power to give strength.
She knows the sorrow in every mother's heart,
who has lost a child to tragedy or violence.

This is for me.
Such incredible freedom.
The availability of a servant.
I find the words to express what is in my heart.

All:

O that silent, ceaseless mourning,
O those dim eyes, never turning from that wondrous, suffering Son.

The Fifth Station: Simon Helps Jesus Carry His Cross

Jesus even experiences our struggle to receive help. He is made to experience the poverty of not being able to carry his burden alone. He enters into the experience of all who must depend upon others to survive. He is deprived of the satisfaction of carrying this burden on his own.

I look into his face and contemplate his struggle.
His weariness and fragility.
His powerlessness.
I see how he looks at Simon,
with utmost humility and gratitude.

This is for me.
So I feel anguish and gratitude.
I express my thanks that he has help.
That he knows my inability to carry my burden alone.

I say what is in my heart, with deep feeling.

All:

Who, on Christ's dear mother gazing,
in her trouble so amazing,
born of woman, would not weep?

The Sixth Station: Veronica Wipes the Face of Jesus

Jesus' journey is at times brutal. He has entered into the terrible experiences of rejection and injustice. He has been whipped and beaten. His face shows the signs of his solidarity with all who have ever suffered injustice and vile, abusive treatment. He encounters a compassionate, loving disciple who wipes the vulgar spit and mocking blood from his face. On her veil, she discovers the image of his face - his gift to her. And, for us to contemplate forever.

What do I see, as I look deeply into his face?
Can I try to comfort the agony and pain?
Can I embrace him, with his face so covered with his passion?

This is for me.
In wonder and awe,
I behold his face now wiped clean,
and see the depth of his suffering in solidarity with all flesh.

All:
Who, on Christ's dear Mother thinking, such a cup of sorrow drinking,
would not share her sorrows deep?

The Seventh Station: Jesus Falls the Second Time

Even with help, Jesus stumbles and falls to the ground. In deep exhaustion he stares at the earth beneath him. "Remember, you are dust and to dust you will return." He has seen death before. Now he can feel the profound weakness of disability and disease and aging itself, there on his knees, under the weight of his cross.

I contemplate Jesus brought very low.
I let my heart go out to him.
I store up this image in my heart, knowing that I will never feel alone in my suffering or in any diminishment,
with this image of Jesus on the ground before me.

All:
For his people's sins, in anguish,
there she saw the victim languish,
bleed in torments, bleed and die.

The Eighth Station: Jesus Meets the Women of Jerusalem

The women of Jerusalem, and their children, come out to comfort and thank him. They had seen his compassion and welcomed his words of healing and freedom. He had broken all kinds of social and religious conventions to connect with them. Now they are here to support him. He feels their grief. He suffers, knowing he can't remain to help them more in this life. He knows the mystery of facing the separation of death.

I look at their faces.
So full of love and gratitude,
loss and fear.
I contemplate what words might have passed between them.
I remember all his tender, compassionate, merciful love for me.
I place myself with these women and children to support him.

This is for me.
So, I let this scene stir up deep gratitude.

All:
Saw the Lord's anointed taken,
saw her Child in death forsaken,
heard his last expiring cry.

The Ninth Station: Jesus Falls the Third Time

This last fall is devastating. Jesus can barely proceed to the end. Summoning all this remaining strength, supported by his inner trust in God, Jesus collapses under the weight of the cross. His executioners look at him as a broken man, pathetic yet paying a price he deserves. They help him up so he can make it up the hill of crucifixion.

I pause to contemplate him there on the ground.
The brokenness that makes me whole.
The surrender that gives me life.
I pause to experience and receive how completely he loves me.
He is indeed completely poured out for me.

As I treasure this gifted experience,
I express what is in my heart.

All:
In the passion of my Maker,
be my sinful soul partaker,
may I bear with her my part;

The Tenth Station: Jesus is Stripped

Part of the indignity is to be crucified naked. Jesus is completely stripped of any pride. The wounds on his back are torn open again. He experiences the ultimate vulnerability of the defenseless. No shield or security protects him. As they stare at him, his eyes turn to heaven.

I pause to watch the stripping.
I contemplate all that is taken from him.
And, how he faces his death with such nakedness.
I reflect upon how much of himself
he has revealed to me.
Holding nothing back.

As I look at him in his humility,
I know that this is for me,
and I share my feelings of gratitude.

All:

Of his passion bear the token,
in a spirit bowed and broken bear his death within my heart.

The Eleventh Station: Jesus is Nailed to the Cross

Huge nails are hammered through his hands and feet to fix him on the cross. As the cross is lifted up, the weight of his life hangs on those nails. Every time he struggles to pull himself up to breathe, his ability to cling to life slips away.

I make myself watch the nails being driven through his flesh. And I watch his face.
I contemplate the completeness of his entry into our lives.

This is for me.
Nailed to a cross to forever proclaim liberty to captives.
What sorrow and gratitude fill my heart!

All:

May his wounds both wound and heal me,
may he enkindle, cleanse, and heal me,
be his cross my hope and stay.

The Twelfth Station: Jesus Dies on The Cross

Between two criminals, a mocking title above his head, with only Mary and John and Mary Magdalene to support him, Jesus surrenders his last breath: "Into your hands I commend my spirit."

I stand there, at the foot of the cross, side by side with all of humanity,
and behold our salvation.
I carefully watch and listen to all that is said.
And then,
I experience the one
who gives life pass from life to death, for me.
I console Mary and John and Mary.
And let them console me.

This is the hour to express the deepest feelings within me.

All:

May he, when the mountains quiver, from that flame which burns for ever shield me on the judgment day.

The Thirteenth Station: Jesus Is Taken Down from The Cross

What tender mourning! Jesus' lifeless body lays in his mother's arms. He has truly died. A profound sacrifice, complete.

I behold this scene at the foot of the cross.
I contemplate touching, caressing his body.
I remember all his hands have touched,
all who have been blessed by his warm embrace.
I pause to let it soak in.
He knows the mystery of death.
He has fallen into God's hands.

For me.
That I might love as I have been loved.
I pour out my heart to the God of all mercies.

All:

Jesus, may thy cross defend me,
and thy saving death befriend me,
cherished by thy deathless grace:

The Fourteenth Station: Jesus Is Laid in The Tomb

They take the body of Jesus to its resting place. The huge stone over the tomb is the final sign of the permanence of death. In this final act of surrender, who would have imagined this tomb would soon be empty or that Jesus would show himself alive to his disciples, or that they would recognize him in the breaking of bread? Oh, that our hearts might burn within us, as we realize how he had to suffer and die so as to enter into his glory, for us.

Reader: We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you.

All: Because by your holy cross
you have redeemed the world.

I pause to contemplate this act of closure on his life.
In solidarity with all humanity,
his body is taken to its grave.
This final journey of his life has shown me
the meaning of his gift of himself for me.

In the fullness of faith in the Risen One,
given by his own Holy Spirit,
I ask Jesus, whose hands, feet and side still bear the signs of this journey, to grant me the graces I need to take up my cross to be a servant of his own mission.

All:

When to dust my dust returneth, grant a soul that to thee yearneth in thy paradise a place.

(To conclude the Stations all say the Prayer of St Richard)

Lord Jesus Christ, we thank you for all the benefits you have won for us, for all the pains and insults you have borne for us.

Most merciful redeemer, friend and brother, may we know you more clearly, love you more dearly, and follow you more nearly, day by day. Amen.
